

One Arrested With Fake Notes Worth Rs 2.49 Lakh In Ghaziabad

According to the issue, the seized FICN notes were in denomination of Rs 2000 and Rs 500 notes.

GhaziabadPress | Trust of India | Updated: December 11, 2019 19:24 IST

Image credit: istockphoto.com/kali9

The accused brought fake currency from West Bengal to supply in Delhi and NCR region. (Representational)

Lucknow:

The Anti Terrorism Squad of the Uttar Pradesh Police today arrested a person from Ghaziabad with high quality Fake Indian Currency Notes (FICN) having a face value of Rs 2.49 lakh.

Acting on a tip-off, the ATS sleuths arrested Mohd Murad from Ghaziabad railway station, quoted an official release.

According to the issue, the seized FICN notes were in denomination of Rs 2000 and Rs 500 notes.

During interrogation, the accused told the ATS that he used to bring fake currency from West Bengal to supply it in Delhi and NCR region.

A detailed probe is on, the release said.

Source: <https://www.ndtv.com/ghaziabad-news/one-arrested-with-fake-notes-worth-rs-2-49-lakh-at-ghaziabad-railway-station-2147223>