

Counterfeit liquor factory raided, two arrested

udaipur crime news mawali abkari police station action

Counterfeit liquor factory raided, two arrested

Udaipur / Mavli udaipur crime news Excise police station raided the fake liquor factory on Wednesday evening in the village of Malak Tus. The police arrested two accused in the action. At the same time, illegal liquor costing lakhs of rupees, 100 liter spirit, empty bottles of liquor, lid, wrapper, hologram and other materials were seized.

Earlier, the Excise Police Station under the leadership of District Assistant Excise Lokesh Joshi raided the residential house of Mohit Meghwal in Tak village of Mal Tus. A fake liquor factory was found there. Police by chance Kamendra Singh son Indrasingh, Guda resident of Chauhans and Manaram son Bhimraj Dangi, resident of Bamora were arrested. Excise police claim that the accused used to earn fake liquor by providing cheap prices in rural areas. Mithali, Jitendra Singh, Nathu Singh, Sumer Singh and others were present in the action team.

Police tightens the screws on the alleged gravel mafia Gingala / Jagat During the action against illegal gravel mining, the police took action and arrested all the six accused named behind the bars for stoning the mining team and snatching their weapons from the homeguards. At the same time, all the four dumpers involved in the incident were recovered and placed in the Jhamarkotda outpost. here, Police took action in connection with illegal gravel mining in Umrara of Hiranmagari police station area. The police action revealed that the illegal business was being run on behalf of the accused through social media. The mobile of the bike rider who was escorting the vehicles in action of the Department of Mines fell while carrying the gravel laden tractor near Umrara. In the mobile, police got information about Jai Idana Mata Namak Group in the name of social media. About 244 villagers are connected in it. In the name of the gravel mafia message, he used to join the group and find out the presence of departmental and police teams. Police took further action by taking the number of group administrators. Here, the police have charged Onar Singh son Kesar Singh, Amar Singh son Devi Singh, Chandan Singh son Kesar Singh, Shankar Singh son Pratap Singh Deora all of Deora rate residents while Bhanvarsih son Ratan Singh, Banshilal's son Shankar Lal Nagda Buthail arrested. udaipur crime news Here, strict action of police is going on against the people involved in such cases.

Source: <https://www.patrika.com/udaipur-news/udaipur-crime-news-1-5525821/>