

Fake cement making factory busted in Bhopal

---

Bhopal, February 2 (Madhya Pradesh): The Madhya Pradesh Police has claimed to have busted a fake cement making factory in Arvalia village on the outskirts of the state capital Bhopal city. Additional Superintendent of Police of Bhopal Crime Branch Nischal Jharia told 'Bhasha' that a fake cement making factory has been unearthed by the Crime Branch Police in Arvalia village on the outskirts of the city. He told that a person named Kadir made branded cement by making fake cement in Parvakheda village in Arvalia area.

---

Disclaimer: This article is auto-uploaded from the agency feed. It has not been edited by the team of NavbharatTimes.com.

Language | Updated:02 Feb 2020, 09:15:00 PM IST

Bhopal, February 2 (Madhya Pradesh): The Madhya Pradesh Police has claimed to have busted a fake cement making factory in Arvalia village on the outskirts of the state capital Bhopal city. Additional Superintendent of Police of Bhopal Crime Branch Nischal Jharia told 'Bhasha' that a fake cement making factory has been unearthed by the Crime Branch Police in Arvalia village on the outskirts of the city. He said that a person named Kadir is making fake cement in Parvakheda village in Aravalia area and selling it in branded cement sacks. He said that in this regard, the Bhopal crime branch raided and then fake cement filled in thousands of sacks, Thousands of sacks of crusher dust ultracrack and ACC cement were found. He said that the laborers working in this fake cement factory and those running the cement mixing grinding machine are being questioned for custody. Jharia said that Qadir, who runs this fake factory, was not found on the spot and his search is on. Police is investigating the case.

Source: <https://navbharattimes.indiatimes.com/state/madhya-pradesh/bhopal/indore/fake-cement-making-factory-busted-in-bhopal/articleshow/73877374.cms>