

Two men arrested in Tamil Nadu for trying to circulate counterfeit currency notes

Deepak Karthik | TNN | Updated: Nov 25, 2019, 19:27 IST

TRICHY: The Kairlabath police in Ariyalur district of Tamil Nadu on Sunday night arrested two men for trying to circulate counterfeit currency notes.

The accused have been identified as S Rajesh, 27, of Melur in Madurai district and M Rajangam, 41, of Thittakudi in Cuddalore district.

On Sunday night, the two men went to a chicken stall on the Kallankurichi Road in Ariyalur and purchased chicken pakora for Rs 100. They gave a Rs 500 note to the shopkeeper. The shopkeeper found that the it was a fake note.

On being alerted by Raja, the police rushed to the spot. They recovered 16 more fake notes from the duo.

They were remanded in judicial custody.

Source: <https://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/city/trichy/two-men-with-counterfeit-currency-notes-arrested-in-tamil-nadu/articleshow/72226976.cms>