A youth was arrested today for allegedly submitting a fake experience certificate for the post of Post-graduate Teacher in Haryana School Teacher Selection Board (HSTSB), Panchkula.

Rupendra Kumar, a resident of Shiv Colony in Faridabad district, was caught after the experience certificate submitted by him was found fake during the verification of documents, a police spokesman said.

HSTSB had advertised a post of PGT Physics in June, 2012 for which the accused had managed a fake teaching experience certificate of four years with the help of C K Gautam, Principal, K M Senior Secondary School and Rajiv Kumar, former District Education Officer, Faridabad who is now District Education Officer, Mewat at Nuh, he said.

Efforts are being made to arrest others involved in the racket, the spokesman said.
