VARANASI: A group of air passengers from Thailand travelling with fake VISA was detained at the Lal Bahadur Shastri International airport on Sunday. They are being questioned by the Intelligence Bureau (IB) personnel.

According to reports, a group of 30 passengers arrived here from Bangkok by Indigo flight. While checking at the immigration counter the VISA of 29 passengers were found fake. All the passengers were detained, and the matter was informed to higher authorities.

The airport director Anil Kumar Rai, who was in Kolkata to attend some meeting, told TOI over phone that the passengers have been detained and the matter is being investigated by the IB officials.
