The Rajganj police has succeeded in confiscating the fake liquor of 70 petty Royal Stags including a pickup van at Rajganj Domanpur on Tuesday morning. The price of the above liquor is being said to be five lakh rupees. On seeing the police, the driver and illegal businessman of the van escaped. Police brought the seized van to the police station. During this, the police took action and registered a case against the owner and operator of the van. The action included Thanedar Umesh Prasad, SI Mangal Soren. Explain that the business of counterfeit liquor is going on in the Naxal affected area of Kudko, Harladih etc. Here, GT Road is made by making liquor and is sent to Bihar in addition to Domanpur, Kanko, Daludih, Tetulmari in Rajganj. Where liquor is sold at an arbitrary price.

Rajasthan label in native

To run their business, the businessmen here make fake liquor and put the label of Haryana in the bottle and tell the shopkeepers that the said liquor belongs to Haryana which comes here without paying tax. Hence it is sold here at low prices. Shopkeepers also get caught in greed.
