

Counterfeit diesel recovered from the company in the partisan operation, created a stir

A seven-hour raid operation, a fake diesel manufacturing factory was running in Lakhapateri, five kilometers from the city

By: amaresh singh

Jabalpur, Madhya Pradesh, India

Published: 09 May 2018, 03:05 PM IST

Harvest . The food department's team raided on the fake diesel making factory in Nayagaon of Gram Panchayat Lakhapeteri, located on National Highway 7, five kilometers from the city, at 2.30 pm on Monday-Tuesday. After seven hours of action, 17 thousand liters of diesel, 10 thousand liters of kerosene and three tankers were confiscated and erected at Madhavanagar police station. Assistant District Supply Officer KS Bhadoria told that the fake diesel making factory was being run by Nilesh Jain alias Anku. Necessary action is being taken against the accused by registering a case against the sections of Essential Commodities Act 1955. Inspector Jeetendra Burman and other employees were present during the operation.

The automatic shutter was set on the shutter for direct entry of the tanker inside the factory to make fake diesel directly inside the tanker by opening the automatic shutter . This machine was operated with a diesel pump.

Action was taken even two years ago, under the leadership of then SP Gaurav Tiwari, the police had taken action on the fake diesel making factory of Nilesh Jain. The accused went to jail and after coming back he resumed the same work.

In the tanker that was driven away, the blue kerosene took advantage of the opportunity at night and the accused drove the tanker MP20G0466 away from the spot. After some distance, the diesel of the tanker ran out and the guerrillas brought the tanker to Madhavnagar police station with the help of Dial 100.

Nilesh Jain called the police to drive away the employees sent to the spot to take stock of the situation before the police action called the team members to drive away. Policemen showed him fear. The information came to the assistant food supply officer and local policemen left as soon as they reached the spot.

Special

- 17 thousand liters of diesel, 10 thousand liters of kerosene and 45 liters of petrol.
- 3 tanker numbers MP20G0466, MP22B5252 and MP17C5298 registered under the name of Nilesh Jain in RTO.
- 30 seized drums were also seized. Freeze, LED TV and other luxury items were found in a separate factory room of the workers.
- The raid operations started from 2.30 am till 9.30 am on Tuesday.
- The factory had two tanker MP22B5252 and MP17C5298 engine condoms. Those who were imprisoned and brought to the police station.

The factory to manufacture fake diesel & the factory to manufacture fake diesel in Lakhapateri ran for seven hours of guerrilla action. Investigation action is being taken against the accused by registering a case on Essential Commodities Act.

KS Bhadoria, Assistant Supply Officer Katni

Source: <https://www.patrika.com/jabalpur-news/imitation-diesel-latest-news-1-2774216/>