Happy Deepavali.

Police said they received a tip off that counterfeit currency was being circulated in Andhiyur area. Based on the directions of Erode SP Sakthi Ganesan, a team of police personnel was formed to monitor the locality. The team received information that the gang was circulating the currency notes at the cattle market near Konnamathayan temple. One of the police personnel posed like a cattle trader and managed to get one of the notes from the gang. After ascertaining that the note was fake, he informed the team, who pounced upon the gang and arrested them. tnn
