

Breaking News: Police raid fake ghee factory, dangerous chemical was being sold in the name of branded companies

On Thursday, the police took action against those who run the factory of fake ghee. Police along with special team have recovered 300 kg of fake ghee

By: Zuber Khan

Published: 24 May 2018, 02:54 PM IST

Kota, Rajasthan, India

Quota . The police took action on Thursday against those operating a fake ghee factory in the city. Dadabari Police along with the special team has recovered about 20 tins ie 300 kg of fake ghee and raw material prepared in the name of a well-known company. Simultaneously, the factory operator was also arrested.

Special team member Head Constable Vijay Singh said that it was reported from Mukhbir that a house in Dadabari had been running a factory for making illegal ghee for a long time. Fake desi ghee is being made here. The police raided it and arrested the accused Shiv Kumar. He told that the accused is a resident of Bharatpur and has been working for making fake ghee by staying in Kota for some years. It was also arrested earlier.

Pakat met several brands

during the operation police seized empty package of several well-known brands. Putting packets on the charged empty compartments, supplies fake ghee with them in the market. Dadabari Thanadikari said that the accused is being questioned about how many liters he has supplied in the market.

These goods were seized

, according to the information, several packaged bags of 16 and half liters of one liter of indigenous ghee, large quantities of unopened ghee, oil and vegetable ghee filled with casks, equipment, packing material, gas stove, small gas cylinder seized Have done

In the

Udyog Nagar police station area, which took place here last year, on August 26 last year, while taking action, the police arrested the operator raiding a fake country ghee factory in a house in Tirupati Housing Colony on Thegda Road. Similarly, on 27 July 2017, police raided a house in Prem Nagar and recovered fake ghee and arrested the owner of the factory. After this, on August 5, a large quantity of fake ghee was recovered from Khari Bawdi located in Railway Colony police station area.

Source: <https://www.patrika.com/kota-news/fake-ghee-factory-operator-arrest-in-kota-2847578/>