SHAHJAHANPUR: Police have seized a truck carrying 925 cartons of spurious liquor in Tilhar area of the district on Friday. Cops have also arrested the truck driver who was identified as Jogendra Singh, a resident of Ambala district in Punjab.

On Friday, Tilhar police received a tip off from an informer that a suspected truck is coming from the direction of Bareilly which had different registration numbers on it. Thereafter, police started patrolling on NH-24 and found the suspected truck near Saryu turn and when police tried to stop the truck, the driver opened fire and tried to flee with his truck. However, police chased the truck and caught it near Tilhar city.

Police discovered Haryana-made-liquor worth Rs 33 lakh were getting smuggled in the truck. Thereafter, police seized the truck and filed an FIR against the driver under IPC sections 307(attempt to murder), 60/63 excise act, 3/25 arms act, 467,420,468 and 471(forgery). He was sent to jail.

Additional SP (rural) SC Shakya said, "Another consignment of spurious liquor was seized by us. The truck put fake number plates on either side to dodge police."
