

Fake currency notes worth Rs 2.55 lakh seized, four nabbed

Posted at: Oct 2 2018 7:36PM

Siwan, Oct 2 (UNI) Police seized fake currency notes worth Rs 2.55 lakh and arrested four peddlers in Siwan and Saran districts late last night

Siwan Police Superintendent Navin Chandra Jha told newsmen here today that fake currency notes worth Rs 2.55 lakh, note printing machine and some papers were seized during the raid.

He said three peddlers were arrested from Basantpur police station area in Siwan district while one from adjoining Saran district.

Mr Jha said the seized notes were in the denominations of Rs 2000, Rs 500 and Rs 100.

He said that nabbed peddlers had been identified as Anshu Kumar, Dinesh Kumar and Pankaj Kumar from Siwan district and Rajesh, a native of Saran district.

Peddlers are being interrogated to nab other members of their gang, Mr Jha added.

UNI XC DH BM

Source: <http://www.uniindia.com/fake-currency-notes-worth-rs-2-55-lakh-seized-four-nabbed/states/news/1367585.html>