

3 held by Rajasthan police with fake notes worth Rs 1 crore

The three accused are resident of the Ringas police station area of Sikar district and they were arrested near Daulatpura toll plaza at Ajmer-Delhi highway.

Home | India | Jaipur

The state police arrested three youths with fake currency of Rs 1 crore in Harmada police station area on Friday. All the fake notes in his custody are of Rs 2,000.

The police are investigating the accused. After his arrest, there is a possibility that a big disclosure might be revealed in the police investigation.

According to the police, the arrested accused are Vijaypal Bajia, Sultan Singh and Yogesh Lamba. The three accused are resident of the Ringas police station area of Sikar district and they were arrested near Daulatpura toll plaza at Ajmer-Delhi highway.

The police had been informed through an informant that three persons on the service road near Daulatpura toll plaza are sitting in a Bolero jeep and they have bundle of notes and the bundles seem to be fake and they are looking to buy jewellery with that. On the basis of information, the police laid a trap to arrest the three.

The police sent constable Harish with artificial jewellery to the accused in civil dress and he lured them to make a deal of Rs 2 lakh.

Harish had checked the bundle of rupees and there was a real note of Rs 2,000 at the top and below the bundle and all the other notes were fake.

On this, Harish indicated the police team, which was standing at a distance. They were then nabbed and the police are currently questioning the three accused.

Source: <https://www.dnaindia.com/jaipur/report-3-held-by-rajasthan-police-with-fake-notes-worth-rs-1-crore-2660603>