Hyderabad: Rachakonda police busted an illegal gutka selling racket at Bhongir and arrested two persons. Police seized Rs 6 lakh worth banned tobacco products from their possession.

Acting on specific information, Bhongir special operations team (SOT) sleuths along with Bhongir town police raided

Lakshmi kirana and general stores in Bhongir on Saturday night. Police arrested two offenders, M Dinesh, 28, and G Ravi, 38, grocery store owners from Bhongir for selling banned gutkha of various brands from their possession.

During interrogation, Dinesh confessed that Ashok, as per Dinesh's request, started supplying gutka to him. Dinesh, in turn, had been selling it to Ravi during the past few months. Police registered a case against the accused.
