HYDERABAD: The Malkajgiri Special Operations Team officials arrested, T Veerender, a grocery store owner from Sainikpuri for selling gutka, illegally imported foreign cigarettes, tobacco products and fire crackers.

Police officials seized Rs 30 lakh worth banned gutka and other tobacco items and a car from his possession. "He has been purchasing gutka and foreign cigarettes from traders in Begum Bazar and Bidar. Even during lockdown he has been transporting gutka to traders in Yaprul, Neredmet and Kushaiguda in his car by placing food grain bags above the tobacco products," a police official said.
