Aurangabad: Aurangabad city police on late Tuesday night arrested three suspects with fake currency notes of Rs 100, Rs 200 and Rs 2,000 denominations.

On Wednesday, a team of policemen raided a customer service center located in Dharur taluka of Beed district and seized counterfeit currency notes totally to the tune of over Rs 2.76 lakh. The probe has revealed that the suspects would sell notes of Rs 1 lakh in exchange of Rs 20, 000.

Cidco police station inspector Ashok Giri said that the suspects have been identified as Sandeep Argade (32) of Nathnagar, Vaitagwadi, Nikhil Samberao (29) of Pahadsingpura and Akash Mane (32) of Jadhav Galli in Dharur. The suspects were moving around on a bike while looking for prospect buyers when they were arrested.

During the preliminary investigation, it came to fore that they had sourced these currency notes from Akash Mane.

Police said that several counterfeit notes of different denominations and equipment used for printing them, including computer, scanner and printer, worth Rs 3.70 lakh have been seized from the suspects. They were produced before judicial magistrate first class Dhanashri Bhandari who remanded them to three-day police custody.
