

Counterfeit Notes Worth Over Rs 12K Seized In Sambalpur, 3 Held

By PragativadiNews On Sep 2, 2021

Sambalpur: Police here on Thursday seized counterfeit currency notes worth over Rs 12,000 and arrested three persons in connection with the case.

Actin on reliable inputs, police conducted raids at different places in the district and seized counterfeit Indian currency of face value Rs 12,300. The fake currency was in denominations of Rs 100, 200, 500 and 2000, police sources said.

Apart from the denominations, the cops have also seized paper, rubber stamps, other incriminating material, two-wheelers, and mobile phones from the possession of the accused persons.

Earlier, on August 8, Sambalpur Town police had busted a fake currency racket and seized Rs 13.85 lakh fake notes from 6 persons.

Source: <https://pragativadi.com/counterfeit-notes-worth-over-rs-12k-seized-in-sambalpur-3-held/>