

Man arrested with 40 counterfeit notes in Pune

Pune police arrested a man with 40 counterfeit notes of ₹2,000 denomination in Indrayaninagar around 6:15 pm. The arrested man was remanded to police custody by a local court

By HT Correspondent

UPDATED ON SEP 22, 2021 12:54 AM IST

The Pune police arrested a man with 40 counterfeit notes of ₹2,000 denomination in Indrayaninagar around 6:15 pm. (REPRESENTATIVE PHOTO)

PUNE: The Pimpri-Chinchwad police arrested a man with 40 counterfeit notes of ₹2,000 denomination in Indrayaninagar around 6:15 pm. The arrested was identified as Sandeep (36) of Vadgaon in Bharas Wada area of Parbhani. He also had ₹6,570 in cash, according to the police. The arrested man was remanded to police custody by a local court on Tuesday.

“We received information about this man arriving in Pune. He said of getting the notes from someone in Nanded,” said sub-inspector Ravindra Bhavari of Bhosari police station who is investigating the case.

The man is a farmer by profession, according to the police, and was driving a Honda Amaze car registered in Parbhani.

“He probably intended to exchange it while buying material from the market,” said PSI Bhavari.

A case was registered under section 489 (C) of Indian penal code at Bhosari police station against the man.

Source: <https://www.hindustantimes.com/cities/pune-news/man-arrested-with-40-counterfeit-notes-in-pune-101632238693008.html>