

Guntur: Counterfeit currency printing gang arrested

Hans News Service | 27 Dec 2021 1:37 AM IST

Guntur Urban SP K Arif Hafeez and DSP Y Jessi Prasanti showing fake currency notes before the media at DPO in Guntur on Sunday

HIGHLIGHTS

The Guntur urban police have arrested a seven-member gang, accused in printing and circulating counterfeit currency and seized fake currency worth Rs 45,05,500, colour printer, one scanner, four laminators, two A-4 paper boxes, 10 paper cutters, two iron scales, one green colour foil, one glass, two cars and four blade boxes from their possession.

Guntur: The Guntur urban police have arrested a seven-member gang, accused in printing and circulating counterfeit currency and seized fake currency worth Rs 45,05,500, colour printer, one scanner, four laminators, two A-4 paper boxes, 10 paper cutters, two iron scales, one green colour foil, one glass, two cars and four blade boxes from their possession.

According to Guntur urban SP K Arif Hafeez, based on the complaint lodged by Shaik Shabbir, Medikonduru police registered a case and took up investigation. On suspicion, cops have questioned accused Jetti Kishore, Panthagani Purnachandra Rao and Devella Srinivas in connection with circulation of fake currency notes. The accused were offering four fake currency notes for one original currency note.

Source: <https://www.thehansindia.com/andhra-pradesh/guntur-counterfeit-currency-printing-gang-arrested-721801?infinite-scroll=1>