

Counterfeit notes seized in Varushanadu

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

THENI, JANUARY 28, 2022 20:27 IST
UPDATED: JANUARY 28, 2022 20:27 ISTSHARE ARTICLE |  |  |  |  |  |  |  PRINT | A | A | A

In a swift operation, Varushanadu police have seized counterfeit notes with a face value of ₹3.96 lakh after the arrest of one person, Thavam, on Friday.

The police said that when Thavam (43) of Nandanathapuram, handed over currency notes to buy liquor bottle from a TASMACHOP shop in Varushanadu. A TASMACHOP employee, Deivendran, alerted the police, said Andipatti Deputy Superintendent of Police, S. Thangakrishnan.

The police rounded up Thavam and found him in possession of ₹54,000 worth counterfeit notes.

Based on his confession, the police team raided a farm in Kadamalaikundu and found more counterfeit notes in the denomination of ₹500, ₹200 and ₹ 100.

The police suspected that the notes were made using photocopying machine and were investigating to ascertain the source of the fake notes.

Source: <https://www.thehindu.com/news/cities/Madurai/counterfeit-notes-seized-in-varushanadu/article38340447.ece>