

Fake mawa caught

BNP police have recovered fake mawa. The police have arrested an accused with fake milk from the van. About three quintals of 90 kg mawa have been recovered by the police.

Publish Date: | Sun, 06 Feb 2022 06:04 PM (ACTUAL)

Dewas (Representative of New Zealand). BNP police have recovered fake mawa. The police have arrested an accused with fake milk from the van. About three quintals of 90 kg mawa have been recovered by the police. Which was coming to be sold in the city. The accused used to sell mawa at different shops in the city at cheap prices. The Food Department has sent samples of mawa and sent it to Bhopal for examination.

According to the information received, police stopped a van during checking on AB Road in front of Bank Note Press at around 10.30 pm on Saturday. In which fake Mawa was kept in the van. When the police asked the accused Bharat son Mangilal Panchal, he could not answer properly. On which the police caught him and took him to the police station. In the investigation, about 3 quintals of 90 kg non-standard mawa was found. The accused used to sell fake mawa at different shops in the city at the rate of Rs 180 per kg. Police have seized the van and arrested the accused and interrogation is going on. At the same time, the food department has taken samples of mawa. Uni Ajay Dod of BNP police station said that the accused was caught with the van during night checking. Fake mawa was kept in the van. The accused was going to the city to sell. Then we caught him. The accused house used to make fake mawa.