

Fake medicines factory busted in Uttarakhand, medicines and equipment worth more than 2 crores found

A fake medicine factory has been busted in the Kunda police station area of Udham Singh Nagar, Uttarakhand. On receiving the information, the police raided and fake medicines worth crores were found from the spot. The police have arrested ten people from the spot. Police is investigating the matter by registering a case.

Ramesh Chandra

Udham Singh Nagar, 09 February 2022, (Updated 09 February 2022, 7:23 AM IST)

Kunda police station of Udham Singh Nagar Uttarakhand has raided a house and found a fake medicine factory. The police have recovered medicines and raw material worth crores from the spot. At the same time, 10 people have been detained during this period. SSP Varinderjit Singh gave this information. According to the information, the police had received information about making fake medicines of branded companies by setting up a factory in a house located in Kunda police station area. When the police force raided on this information, a large consignment of fake medicines of Cipla and other companies was found on the spot. 50 lakh machines were installed in the factory. The value of the cache of counterfeit drugs caught is said to be Rs 2 crore. At the same time, machines worth about 50 lakh rupees were installed in the factory. The police have arrested 10 accused from the factory of making counterfeit medicines.

Police recovered these medicines and equipment from the factory. SSP Udham Singh Nagar Barinderjit Singh said that the police found 14 boxes of Eurimax D, 10 wrappers of Cipla company, 10 bags of dye basis, 6 bags of made starch, 2 bags of micro crystalline cellulose, 4 bags of magnesium stearate, 2 plastic bags at the spot. , 65 kg of loose tablets of Urimax D have been recovered. Apart from this, one bag of 16 kg Manosafe, two bags of 51 kg Yclave-25, one pouch Telma-40 and 3 bags of 1.5 kg, 6 large pharmaceutical machines, 9 plastic bags of pharmaceutical equipment, 30 kg. Along with three bags of powdered medicine, 2 bundles of printed foil, the police have recovered a car.

Source: <https://www.aajtak.in/crime/police-and-intelligence/story/uttarakhand-udham-singh-nagar-fake-medicine-factory-busted-lcla-1407992-2022-02-09>