Burhanpur (Naiduniya Representative). Police have arrested two accused for selling fake PVC pipes in the name of a branded company. According to the police, a pipe company in the area was named Texmo and caught two accused who were consuming PVC pipe in the market by putting a fake trade mark as Texmo. On the complaint of the company officers, the Lalbagh police station registered a case against the accused.

It is worth noting that a day earlier, the case of selling fake pipes of Texmo Pipe Company located on Bahadarpur Road was exposed. Fake pipes were being installed in an under-construction house in Govindpuram Colony. The company's team raided and confiscated the pipes. A complaint was made to the police. Police arrested two accused, Kishore Giani resident Salim Colony and Lokesh Chowkse resident Lalbagh.

The accused were committing fraud by bringing a pipe from Jalgaon by putting their trade mark on it here. It is being told that both these employees were earlier working in the said company. After leaving the job, he started doing this fraud. Actually, he was working in the company in the past, so he was familiar with many distributors. He took advantage of this. The police is investigating the matter after registering a case. Its named complaint was made by the company officers at Lalbagh police station. After which the accused were immediately arrested by the police.
