

Fake notes were being run indiscriminately, gang caught including 13 notes of two thousand They were preparing to spend two thousand rupees in the market by printing fake notes worth four lakh rupees, in two months they cheated many people by making one lakh fake notes, fake notes of two thousand worth 26 thousand rupees, 200 rupees Lot of clippings of 500 notes recovered Alwar

Published: February 15, 2022 02:19:11 am Alwar/Bhiwadi. DST team Bhiwadi and Kishangarhbas police have arrested three accused while exposing the gang that is consuming fake notes in the market. Police recovered 13 fake notes of two thousand each, worth Rs 26 thousand, clipping of notes of 200 and 500 rupees, color printer, cutter used for cutting notes, printing paper etc. from the possession of the accused. Huh.

According to Bhiwadi district DST in-charge Mukesh Kumar, information was received from the informer that some people are making fake notes and running them in the markets of the area. On which as per the order of SP Shantanukumar Singh, Neemrana ASP Jagram Meena, Kishangarhbas DSP Atul Agre, The team constituted under the direction of SHO Amit Chaudhary Kishangarhbas identified the accused and kept a constant vigil on their possible places by collecting information in a confidential manner. During the raid, the accused started meeting each other in solitude for 2-3 days and some of them suddenly increased contact on the phone. Meanwhile, the informer informed that the said gang is soon preparing to print fake notes worth 4-5 lakhs and spend them in the market.
Constable Gopichand informed the DST that the accused Jitendra alias Jeetu has forged fake notes of two thousand rupees each. He is using these notes as genuine. Fake notes have been made by him by counterfeiting currency notes of two thousand rupees and at this time he is waiting for some means to go to his village on Kotkasim tiraha Kishangarhbas. On information, SHO Amit Kumar May Japte reached Kotkasim Tiraha, Where the person of the stated appearance was found standing.
When asked the name of the address, he told Jitendra alias Jeetu. When he searched it, a total of nine notes of two thousand rupees were found in his pocket, which, after washing it in his hand, turned out to be counterfeit. He told that he wanted to run these fake notes in the market. On this the accused Jitendra alias Jeetu son Budhram Ahir resident of Bolni police station Kishangarhbas was arrested. On the information of accused Jeetu, other gang members Pawan Kumar son Hariram Ahir resident Gunti police station Behror, Ompal son Karam Singh Kashyap resident Shahjahanpur police station Sarsawa district Saharanpur UP were arrested along with note printing equipment and counterfeit notes. Those who washed their hands and saw them, then the notes turned out to be counterfeit. He told that he wanted to run these fake notes in the market. On this the accused Jitendra alias Jeetu son Budhram Ahir resident of Bolni police station Kishangarhbas was arrested.
On the information of accused Jeetu, other gang members Pawan Kumar son Hariram Ahir resident Gunti police station Behror, Ompal son Karam Singh Kashyap resident Shahjahanpur police station Sarsawa district Saharanpur UP were arrested along with note printing equipment and counterfeit notes. Those who washed their hands and saw them, then the notes turned out to be counterfeit.
He told that he wanted to run these fake notes in the market. On this the accused Jitendra alias Jeetu son Budhram Ahir resident of Bolni police station Kishangarhbas was arrested. On the information of accused Jeetu, other gang members Pawan Kumar son Hariram Ahir resident Gunti police station Behror, Ompal son Karam Singh Kashyap resident Shahjahanpur police station Sarsawa district Saharanpur UP were arrested along with note printing equipment and counterfeit notes.

Police said that the accused told during interrogation that Nikhil and Sanjay, residents of UP, had come to Behror 2-3 months ago to the accused Ompal . Who planned to make fake notes and run them in the market. When Ompal told his friend Pawan, a resident of Behror, about this, he too joined the plan. Nikhil and Sanjay are experts in making fake notes and Nikhil has been jailed in the past in cases of fake notes. At present, he is also wanted from Uttarakhand in the fake note case. Pawan provided color printer, cutter, note making paper and other materials. Ompal got Sanjay and Nikhil a flat on rent in Neemrana. Where the gang initially printed about 60 notes of 2-2 thousand. Pawan contacted his friend Jitendra alias Jeetu, a resident of Kishangarhbas, and slowly got the notes started in the market.

Source: <https://www.patrika.com/alwar-news/fake-notes-were-running-indiscriminately-gang-caught-including-13-not-7340647/>