

Selling famous cell phone parts using fake brand in Gandhipuram

Although there are many types of cell phones, Apple's cell phones, earphones, smart watches, phone covers, etc. always have a special mouse. There is a special group of college students, teenagers and young women to buy it. In this case, some cell phone shops in Gandhipuram, Coimbatore have been selling cell phone parts at extra cost using fake Apple logo. This information came to the notice of Kumaravel, an Apple official in Choolaimet, Chennai. He lodged a complaint at Coimbatore Kattur Police Station.

Acting on the complaint, the police registered a case and raided cell phone shops in Gandhipuram. Then it was revealed that some stores were selling Apple cell phone parts using fake brand. Subsequently, the police arrested the shop owners Mohammad Apsargani (24) from Madurai Kamarajapuram, Vartam Chowdhury (23) from Rajasthan, Mahendra Singh (28) and Nausad (39) from Palakkad, Kerala. The police are investigating them. They also seized 1000 cell phone covers, 25 earphones and 25 USB cables with fake stamps from their shops. The incident where the police suddenly raided cell phone shops in the Gandhipuram area created a stir in the area.

Source: <https://www.maalaimalar.com/news/district/selling-famous-cell-phone-parts-using-fake-brand-in-gandhipuram-555086?infinitescroll=1>