

Discovery of the fake brewery

Tiruvarur Police found a fake brewery near Muthuppet and are looking for its owner. Vehicle inspection The police conducted a vehicle search near Nagapattinam the day before yesterday. Then it was revealed that liquor bottles were being smuggled from Karaikal to Muthuppet via Nagapattinam east coast road in a cargo vehicle loaded with fish. Following this, the police confiscated the liquor bottles, and the car, which was smuggling the liquor bottles in a fish cart, was taken to DR. Aravindan and Tamilarasan from Pattinam Tirunallaru area were arrested. Based on the information given by them, the police arrested Palanivel's son Sasikumar (44 years old) from Atthipadugai Melatheru area next to Tirunallarai and conducted investigation. Fake brewery In this situation, the investigation conducted by the police revealed that these liquors were taken to Muthupettai in Tiruvarur district and a fake brewery was operating there. Subsequently, Tiruvarur Additional Superintendent of Police Vellathurai, Prohibition Sub-Superintendent of Police Abdul Kapur and the police raided the farm grove owned by Veerasekaran, Samithurai's son, on the Uppur East Coast Road next to Muthupettai.

Confiscation Then it was discovered that a fake brewery was operating there. Then there were 1,500 liters of Puducherry state liquor, 500 liters of spirit in 4 big barrels, 5 cans of colored liquid, more than 2 thousand empty bottles in 75 bags, 50 empty cans, 2 thousand cardboard boxes, 10 bags of bottle caps, 4 machines for inflating bottle caps, one bag of stickers and fakes. The police confiscated the raw materials required for the preparation of liquor, government stamp labels, etc. worth several lakhs of rupees. Netting for the owner Muthuppet police registered a case and formed a special team to nab Veerasekaran, the owner of the fake brewery. The discovery of the fake brewery created a stir in the area.

Source: <https://www.dailythanthi.com/News/State/discovery-of-the-fake-brewery-877003>