

Spurious liquor unit run by DMK functionary busted

The unit had supplied spurious liquor to TASMAL outlets; the police seized 5,000 liquor bottles, 20,000 empty bottles with fake labels, bottle caps, chemicals and spirits in 212 cans

A special police team busted a unit manufacturing spurious liquor at Kongarai village near Maduranthakam on Sunday and seized a large number of bottles with fake labels, holograms and machinery.

The unit had supplied the spurious liquor to Tasmal shops, the police said.
