

Jodhpur police raid Akalgarh market for selling fake goods

The Jodhpur police conducted a raid in Ludhiana's Akalgarh market, targeting shops selling counterfeit goods with logos of well-known companies. The operation also extended to Gandhi Nagar Market and a factory in Bhai Manna Singh Nagar, where a significant quantity of fake products was allegedly seized.

The investigation began when Jodhpur police arrested a shopkeeper in Jodhpur for selling counterfeit clothing. The arrested individual revealed that the fake goods originated from Ludhiana. Following this lead, the police raided a factory in Bhai Manna Singh Nagar and then Akalgarh market, identifying it as a hub for selling these counterfeit items.
