

ANDHRA TOURIST VEHICLE WITH FAKE NUMBER PLATE IMPOUNDED

An Andhra tourist vehicle driven with fake number plates without paying tax was impounded near Tiruthani. Motor vehicle inspector Sumesh Narayanan was engaged in checking vehicles at the Ponpadi check post located on the Andhra state border on the Chennai-Tirupati national highway near Tiruthani the night before yesterday. At that time, An Andhra State tourist vehicle coming from Andhra towards Tiruthani sped away without stopping at the check post. Following this, they chased the said vehicle and caught it at a place called Murukamptu near Tiruthani. Later, on checking the documents, it was revealed that the fake number plate was prepared and operated without paying the tax to the Tamil Nadu government and obtaining a permit. In this case, the said vehicle was handed over to the Tiruvallur Regional Transport Office as per the instructions of Joint Transport Commissioner Suresh.

Source: https://www.dinakaran.com/fake_number_plate_andhra_tourist_vehicle/