

Itanagar police busts counterfeit cleaning product racket in city markets

The Itanagar Capital Police have cracked down on the sale of counterfeit Harpic toilet cleaner products in the city's key markets, following a complaint from Alfa Intelligence Service Pvt. Ltd., representing Reckitt Benckiser (India) Pvt. Ltd.

Acting swiftly, a joint team led by SDPO Kengo Duchi and OC Inspector K. Yangfo, along with Sub-Inspector Randhir Kumar Jha and other officers, conducted raids across several shops in Gandhi and Ganga markets on July 25. The operation, carried out in the presence of complainants and independent witnesses, resulted in the seizure of large quantities of fake Harpic products.
